

STANDINGS

BLUE : 67

GREY: 50

BLUEGREY GAZETTE

Est. 2003

Blue Repeats!!!

It was a hot day out on the course but Team Blue was even hotter. Grey was left holding their bums as they got their asses handed to them in a rather lopsided final day. Blue won 75% of the final day points to repeat as champions. A gracious Team Grey captain Krupka congratulated the winners and vowed to rebuild his team to give Blue a run for their money next year. Grey did have some positives as Fred Gardner was co-winner of the MVP award. Freddie road the rollercoaster of emotions as his beloved Leafs lost minutes before he donned the green jacket. BGXX was one of the best as organizers continue to outdo themselves year after year. Let's do it again in 2024!!

BGXX Champions

MVP X 3

For the first time in BG history, there were three winners of the green jacket. Congratulations to Dennis Chrenek, Brody Thomson and the third guy on a great week.

Chrenek, Gardner, Thomson

Quotable Quotes

- "Some guy in a blue golf shirt came in this morning and bought every can of Whoopass we had" Quicky Mart owner Apu
- "I hope Grey isn't sent down to the relegation rounds next year" Charles
- "Oh boy. It's pizza for dinner again tonight" D. Chrenek

Drunk Dude Of The Day

His leadership was called into question when he hit the wrong ball on 18 today to lose a much needed point for Grey. Shortly after that he was seen talking about the good old days on the ball-field to anyone who cared to listen. That was a sure sign that Ken Truhn had earned Drunk Dude Of The Day.

Photo Album

