BG XXI PROMISES TO BE HOT!

Indian Canyons will once again host the 21st BlueGrey Classic. The Diversity and Inclusion protesters were not successful in renaming the event “The Non Hued Gathering at the Turtle Island Inhabitant’s Deep Fissure All Inclusive Club”. The Gazette will continue to call it by the original name until such time that hell does in fact freeze over.

Politics aside, organizers have put together a fantastic group of golfers this year. There are a few returnees as well as some rookies that are certainly in for a treat. The best golf trip ever continues to improve year after year and 2024 will uphold that tradition.

The weather will prove to be just as hot as the discussion about the adopted handicap system for this year’s “friendly competition”. The Alcazar Resort has dusted off BlueGrey’s storage locker so the Lip Out Pub will be up and running. This event is run by the best in the business. Rumor has it the Masters Golf Committee has been snooping around the premises looking for tips for their tournament. Let’s hope none of them leaves their jacket behind!

The Gazette is proud to be the chosen media sponsor for this event. To all golfers :

The Gazette writes itself so don’t disappoint!

Team Grey

Team Grey looks to turn things around this after suffering their second defeat in as many years. Co-Captains Krupka and Truhn has made wholesale changes to the roster for BGXXI. “Truhpka” has ditched 6 of last years models for what hopes to be a combination of rookies and returnees that will wrestle the cup from Blue’s grasp. The biggest omission from Grey this year is Cliff Cronk. How anybody can fill those shoes remains to be seen.

Self proclaimed rogue captain Shane Smith returns from breast enhancement surgery and is sure to add some spice to the team. Rod Kennedy also is coming back to talk some sense into Grey. Mike Gillis is supposed to show this time. Joining rookie Gillis are newcomers Travis Jensen and Lincoln Carriere. “It’s a shakeup that needed to happen” says Truhpka. Only time will tell....

Team Blue

A convincing win for the second year in a row has not deterred Captain Chrenek from tweaking the Team Blue lineup.

Gone is the sweaty stick of dynamite Ian Perry who was replaced by rookie Matt Albinati. “Albo” brings with him a winning pedigree and if you thought there were enough Chrenek relatives on Blue already think again. The cupholders also added another rookie in Jason Weaver. Jason hails from Prince George and his claim to fame is that he knows Ron Thomson (like that’s a big deal). Welcome rookies and try to keep up!
